Edition 9: Friday 7th November 2025

Dear Parents and Carers

How was your half term, hopefully it was a pleasant one. The children have returned well rested and we have enjoyed their holiday tales.

Thank you!

To all the Grandparents who came for our Infant Sparky Start 'Toy Day'...what a pleasure to meet you all!

Wow! What a turn out we had for our Y6 SAT Presentation - 66% attendance which is our highest score!

Our Autumn Term disco was a blast and we raised £712.44!

Congratulations to the Y6 Kingswood children for behaving so well on their recent residential.

Please 'rate' us on Ofsted's Parent View

thank you!

Eek...we have had some unwanted visitors. PLEASE can EVERYONE check their hair this weekend for headlice.

Dates to Remember

PATHS [Parents and Teachers of the Hartford Schools] AGM

Tuesday 18th November 3.30pm
Infant School Staff Room

Please come along and support our fundraising committee. Refreshments available.

Learning Leaflets and Enquiry Organisers

You should now have the latest outline of what your child will be learning this half term. Working closely together at home and school helps every child make their best progress.

Armistice Day

Tuesday 11th November

We will mark this important event with a 1-2 minute silence across both schools at 11.00am. The children are invited to wear their poppies for the day. Children will be making a poppy over the next few days for school displays - look out for photos.

KS1 Library visits

C6: Thursday 13th November

[Class 5 visited yesterday 👍]

Y1: Thursday 20th November

The children will walk to Huntingdon Library as part their history work on 'Toys'. How exciting!

Dates to Remember

Children in Need Day Friday 14th November

Everyone is invited to wear spotty or stripy clothes and bring in a donation for this great fundraising initiative.

Anti Bullying Week From Monday 17th November

Our assemblies and PSHE lessons will focus on being a good friend and how to callout bullies and bullying type behaviours. Everyone is invited to wear 'odd socks' across the week to support this important drive across all schools.

Parliament Week From Monday 24th November

All children are invited to nominate themselves to be a School Councillor. The children typically vote for 2 school councillors per class who are in post from November through to the following November. Your child will need to create a manifesto to share with their class. Previously children have set up their own campaign including stickers to support their election.

Parent Consultations Tuesday 9th & Thursday 11th December

Sign up sheets will be placed outside classrooms the week beginning Monday 24th November.

Each family can sign up for one 10 minute slot to meet the teacher[s] in our school halls to discuss targets for the Spring Term [these will be shared on Friday 5th December].

Year 1 Nativity Wednesday 10th December

Our Y1 children in Class 3 will perform a simple version of the Nativity to parents and Carers in the school hall from 9.15am. this performance will be approximately 40 minutes with a chance to take photographs at the end. any donations will be warmly received for prop making.

Christmas Dinner & Jumper Day Thursday 11th December

Everyone is invited to wear their Christmas jumper and bring in a small donation for 'Save the Children'. We will also be eating our annual Christmas Dinner. Please do sign up on ParentPay.
